

Evidence-Based Nursing

Contents

Purpose and procedure.....	34	A structured and individualised safety programme reduced falls in high risk nursing home patients.....	52
EBN notebook.....	36	Seminars on advance directives for adult outpatients increased completion rates.....	53
Implementation forum.....	38
Letters		Prognosis
Setting the results of individual studies in context	40	Grief after pregnancy loss was predicted by length of pregnancy, neuroticism, psychiatric symptoms, and absence of other children	54
Editors' response:.....	40
Evidence-based mental health.....	40	Causation
Editors' response:.....	40	Childhood acute lymphoblastic leukaemia was not linked to residential exposure to power line magnetic fields	55
Treatment		Moderate prenatal alcohol exposure was associated with a modest increase in adolescent learning and behavioural difficulties	56
Early hospital discharge of newborn infants was not associated with feeding related hospital readmission during the first 28 days of life	41	Low birth weight was associated with non-fatal coronary artery disease and stroke in nurses	57
Early hospital discharge of newborn infants was associated with increased risk of hospital readmission during the first 28 days of life	42
Review: some psychosocial interventions can help children and families cope with chronic conditions.....	43	Quality improvement
Telephone reminders improved compliance with a second dose of hepatitis B vaccine in high risk adults...	44	Review: telephone and computer communication improves healthcare process and patient outcomes.....	58
The nicotine inhaler was an effective and safe aid to smoking cessation	45	Reminder interventions increased women's use of mammography and Pap smear screening	59
A comprehensive smoking cessation programme after surgery increased 1 year quit rates	46
A 2 minute surgical hand scrub was associated with higher, but not clinically significant, bacteria counts compared with a 3 minute hand scrub	47	Qualitative
Calcium and vitamin D reduced non-vertebral fractures and bone loss in the elderly	48	Parental perception of stress during a child's health crisis was represented by 4 dimensions.....	60
An empowerment information intervention improved participation in treatment decision making in men with recently diagnosed prostate cancer.....	49	Homeless battered women experienced patterns of violence that represented phases in their abusive relationships.....	61
Review: compression treatment improves healing of venous leg ulcers	50	Environmental issues affected women's caring.....	62
A specially designed foam mattress replacement reduced pressure ulcers in nursing home residents	51	Surgical nursing care was viewed as engaged or detached by women in hospital for hip surgery.....	63
		Patients experienced physiological and psychological difficulties on long term home oxygen treatment	64
		Glossary.....	Inside back cover