

Evidence-Based Nursing

Contents

Purpose and procedure.....	34	A structured and individualised safety programme reduced falls in high risk nursing home patients.....	52
EBN notebook.....	36	Seminars on advance directives for adult outpatients increased completion rates.....	53
Implementation forum.....	38	Prognosis
Letters		Grief after pregnancy loss was predicted by length of pregnancy, neuroticism, psychiatric symptoms, and absence of other children	54
Setting the results of individual studies in context	40	Causation
Editors' response:.....	40	Childhood acute lymphoblastic leukaemia was not linked to residential exposure to power line magnetic fields	55
Evidence-based mental health.....	40	Moderate prenatal alcohol exposure was associated with a modest increase in adolescent learning and behavioural difficulties	56
Editors' response:.....	40	Low birth weight was associated with non-fatal coronary artery disease and stroke in nurses	57
Treatment		Quality improvement
Early hospital discharge of newborn infants was not associated with feeding related hospital readmission during the first 28 days of life	41	Review: telephone and computer communication improves healthcare process and patient outcomes.....	58
Early hospital discharge of newborn infants was associated with increased risk of hospital readmission during the first 28 days of life	42	Reminder interventions increased women's use of mammography and Pap smear screening	59
Review: some psychosocial interventions can help children and families cope with chronic conditions.....	43	Qualitative
Telephone reminders improved compliance with a second dose of hepatitis B vaccine in high risk adults...	44	Parental perception of stress during a child's health crisis was represented by 4 dimensions.....	60
The nicotine inhaler was an effective and safe aid to smoking cessation	45	Homeless battered women experienced patterns of violence that represented phases in their abusive relationships.....	61
A comprehensive smoking cessation programme after surgery increased 1 year quit rates	46	Environmental issues affected women's caring.....	62
A 2 minute surgical hand scrub was associated with higher, but not clinically significant, bacteria counts compared with a 3 minute hand scrub	47	Surgical nursing care was viewed as engaged or detached by women in hospital for hip surgery.....	63
Calcium and vitamin D reduced non-vertebral fractures and bone loss in the elderly	48	Patients experienced physiological and psychological difficulties on long term home oxygen treatment	64
An empowerment information intervention improved participation in treatment decision making in men with recently diagnosed prostate cancer.....	49	Glossary.....	Inside back cover
Review: compression treatment improves healing of venous leg ulcers	50
A specially designed foam mattress replacement reduced pressure ulcers in nursing home residents	51		