Contents

Purpose and procedure ......................... 34

EBN notebook
Estimating treatment effects: real or the result of chance? .... 36

Resource corner ................................. 40

Treatment
A 42 day tapering course of dexamethasone reduced duration of assisted ventilation in very low birthweight infants, but increased risk of cerebral palsy at age 1 year ... 41

Compared with dimethicone, 2 weeks of spinal manipulation reduced infantile colic behaviour at 4–11 days after initial treatment ...................... 42

A school based intervention to reduce television use decreased adiposity in children in grades 3 and 4 .... 43

A comprehensive educational programme was effective for inner city patients with asthma .................. 44

Review: healthcare decision aids improve knowledge, decrease decisional conflict, and increase active participation ........................... 45

Brief counselling by a primary care physician or nurse practitioner reduced alcohol consumption in high risk drinkers .......................... 46

Review: nursing interventions increase smoking cessation rates in adults ........................................ 47

Review: antibiotics have a slight beneficial effect on acute bronchitis ............................................. 48

Review: penicillin V is better than placebo and equal to non-penicillins for acute maxillary sinusitis .................. 49

Review: allylamines, azoles, undecenoic acid, and tolnaftate are effective for fungal skin infections of the foot ........ .... 50

Insulin adjustment by a diabetes nurse educator improved glucose control in patients with poorly controlled, “insulin requiring” diabetes ................................ 51

Review: early mobilisation is better than bed rest for medical conditions and after healthcare procedures ........ 52

Patient controlled analgesia was more effective than nurse controlled analgesia after cardiac surgery ............... 53

Review: specially designed products to prevent or heal pressure sores are more effective than standard mattresses . 54

Stroke unit care decreased mortality and increased the number of patients who were living at home 10 years after stroke ........................................... 55

The addition of a home visit by a cardiac nurse to usual multidisciplinary care reduced deaths and readmissions in patients with chronic congestive heart failure .................. 56

Causation
Fruit and vegetable intake decreased risk of ischaemic stroke ...................................................... 57

Review: postmenopausal hormone replacement therapy is associated with a decreased risk of colorectal cancer ........ 58

Qualitative
Decision making between women and their caregivers during labour ranged from being unilateral to joint and was associated with various emotions .................. 59

Women had an inherent sense of knowing how to manage their lives after sexual assault by men they knew .......... 60

Women with fibromyalgia struggled to gain integrity, understanding, symptom relief, and freedom in their everyday lives ........................................ 61

Women's decision making about hormone replacement therapy balanced being in control with fear, uncertainty, and dislike of medications .......................... 62

Women with breast cancer decided whether to use complementary/alternative medicine through a process of discovery and investigation .......................... 63

Caregivers of family members with dementia described the experience of quality respite as a 3 phase cognitive journey towards a sense of “being free” .......... 64

Glossary ........................................... Inside back cover