

Evidence-Based Nursing

Contents

Purpose and procedure 98	A strategy of evaluation and delayed closure of dirty abdominal wounds reduced wound infections..... 117
EBN users' guide	Infusion of low dose dopamine did not reduce renal failure in at risk patients in the intensive care unit 118
Evaluation of systematic reviews of treatment or prevention interventions 100	Ethics consultations in the intensive care unit (ICU) reduced duration of ICU stay and time on aggressive, life sustaining treatments with no change in overall mortality 119
Treatment	Cognitive behavioural therapy plus medical management reduced depression and joint inflammation in rheumatoid arthritis 120
Review: insufficient evidence exists for regular use of loop diuretics in preterm infants with chronic lung disease 105	Review: glucosamine is more effective than selected non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs and placebo for reducing pain and more effective than placebo for improving function in patients with osteoarthritis 121
A breastfeeding intervention increased breast feeding and reduced GI tract infections and atopic eczema 106	Prognosis
Delayed prescribing of antibiotics increased duration of acute otitis media symptoms in children but reduced diarrhoea 107	Fracture risk was increased after stroke with a marked increase immediately after stroke 122
Developmental outcomes did not differ for early or delayed tympanostomy tube insertion in young children with otitis media 108	Quality assurance
Parent training improved maternal wellbeing and reduced attention deficit hyperactivity disorder symptoms in children 109	Review: questionnaire feedback to clinicians improves recognition of psychiatric disorders in high risk patients but not in all patients in non-psychiatric settings 123
Review: alarm interventions reduce nocturnal enuresis in children 110	Qualitative
Combined permethrin (PER) and trimethoprim/sulfamethoxazole (TMP/SMX) was better than PER alone but not better than TMP/SMX alone for treating head lice infestation in children 111	Older adolescents with cerebral palsy perceived success to mean being happy, believing in themselves, and being believed in and accepted by others..... 124
Review: oral and intravaginal agents are equally effective for treatment of uncomplicated vulvovaginal candidiasis ... 112	Adolescents from different socioeconomic backgrounds had different attitudes about teen pregnancy..... 125
Continuous topical heat was as effective as ibuprofen for dysmenorrhoea 113	Women with HIV/AIDS described several forms of positive change resulting from their illness 126
Agnus castus fruit extract was safe and effective for relieving symptoms of premenstrual syndrome..... 114	Informal caregivers described 3 strategies to search for meaning in caring for a person with HIV 127
Review: social skills training, supported employment programmes, and cognitive behaviour therapy improve some outcomes in schizophrenia 115	Patients in stroke units have better outcomes, but receive less personal nursing care 128
Review: pelvic floor muscle training is effective for stress or mixed urinary incontinence in women 116	Glossary Inside back cover
	Web only E1-E11