

Evidence-Based Nursing

Contents

Purpose and procedure	Review: several techniques optimise oxygenation during suctioning of patients	34	51
EBN notebook	Prone positioning for acute respiratory failure improved short term oxygenation but not survival		52
“Double blind, you are the weakest link — goodbye!”	Intensive insulin treatment reduced mortality and morbidity in critically ill patients	36	53
Implementation forum	Review: multidisciplinary disease management programmes do not reduce death or recurrent myocardial infarction but reduce admission to hospital		54
So much research evidence, so little dissemination and uptake: mixing the useful with the pleasing	A specialist nurse intervention reduced hospital readmissions in patients with chronic heart failure	38	55
Treatment	Dietary fibre supplementation with psyllium or gum arabic reduced incontinent stools and improved stool consistency in community living adults		56
Review: continuous nasogastric milk feeding leads to a longer time to reach full feeds in premature infants < 1500 g	Review: some herbal medicines and plant extracts reduced pain and disability and improved function in osteoarthritis ..	41	57
A 30 mg/kg loading dose of acetaminophen was more effective than a 15 mg/kg maintenance dose in febrile children	A support programme for patients with dementia and their caregivers lowered institutionalisation rates initially ...	42	58
Regular drinking of cranberry-lingonberry juice concentrate reduced recurrent urinary tract infections in women	Prognosis	43
Review: pressurised metered dose inhalers are as effective as other hand held inhalers for delivering corticosteroids in stable asthma	Children infected with meningitis before 1 year of age were at increased risk of disability at 5 years of age	44	59
Review: pressurised metered dose inhalers are as effective as other hand held inhalers for delivering β_2 agonist bronchodilators in stable asthma	Qualitative	45
Review: behavioural interventions show the most promise for chronic fatigue syndrome	While leaving abusive male partners, women engaged in a 4 stage process of reclaiming self	46	60
A short term education intervention but not peer discussion improved vitality and pain in women with breast cancer	Fathers experienced stillbirth as a waste of life and needed to protect their partners and express grief in their own way	47	61
Warming patients before clean surgery reduced the incidence of postoperative wound infection	Practitioners’ actions inhibited patient participation in self care decision making	48	62
Review: antibiotics reduce wound infections and intra-abdominal abscesses in patients having appendectomy	The experiences of patients with rheumatoid arthritis admitted to hospital focused on 5 interrelated themes	49	63
Thromboprophylaxis with low dose unfractionated heparin plus compression stockings reduces thromboembolic complications of colorectal surgery	Providers tried to help patients and families make realistic end of life decisions	50	64
	Glossary		Inside back cover