

Evidence-Based Nursing

Contents

|   |    |  |                   |
|---|----|--|-------------------|
| Purpose and procedure .....  | 2  | Gargine dose titration by patients and by physicians were equally effective for preventing severe hypoglycaemia.....   | 20                |
| EBN notebook   |    |  |                   |
| Helping practitioners understand the contribution of qualitative research to evidence-based practice .....  | 4  | Web based care management improved glucose control in patients with poorly controlled diabetes.....  | 21                |
| Reflections on “Helping practitioners understand the contribution of qualitative research to evidence-based practice” .....   | 7  | An educational booklet did not improve adherence or symptoms in patients prescribed thyroxine for primary hypothyroidism.....  | 22                |
| Treatment  |    |  |                   |
| The WHO technique for intramuscular thigh vaccination in infants and toddlers had fewer adverse reactions than 2 other techniques .....                                 | 9  | Review: multidisciplinary interventions reduce hospital admission and all cause mortality in heart failure.....  | 23                |
| Liposomal lidocaine improved intravenous cannulation success rates in children .....  | 10 | Review: multivitamins and mineral supplements do not reduce infections in elderly people .....   | 24                |
| Review: children permitted clear fluids $\leq$ 120 minutes before surgery have similar gastric volumes and pH values as those on standard fasts.....                    | 11 | Multivitamin and multimineral supplements did not reduce reported infection days or related use of healthcare services in elderly people.....  | 25                |
| Topical chloramphenicol was not effective for acute infective conjunctivitis in children.....   | 12 | Clinical prediction guide   |                   |
| Nurse home visits did not differ from standard care for prevention of recurrent child abuse .....   | 13 | A simple risk score predicted 7 day stroke risk after transient ischaemic attack .....   | 26                |
| Multisystemic therapy improved adherence to blood glucose testing in adolescents with type 1 diabetes....   | 14 | Qualitative   |                   |
| A weight maintenance diet reduced bulimic symptoms in adolescent girls.....   | 15 | Mothers’ decisions about MMR vaccination were framed by their children’s vulnerabilities and wider social trends.....  | 27                |
| After 3 months, low dose oral contraceptives reduced pain in adolescent girls with moderate to severe dysmenorrhoea.....  | 16 | UK and US adolescents perceived internet health information to be salient but of questionable credibility  | 28                |
| Trimethoprim reduced dysuria in women with symptoms of urinary tract infection but negative urine dipstick test results.....  | 17 | Young women described the benefits of having advance supplies of emergency contraception but emphasised its use as a “last resort” rather than an alternative form of contraception .....            | 29                |
| Review: wearing graduated compression stockings during air travel reduces the risk of deep venous thromboembolism.....  | 18 | Marginalised HIV positive drug users felt that an HIV diagnosis created benefits as well as losses .....   | 30                |
| A home based, physical activity intervention increased physical activity, fitness, and vigour and reduced fatigue in sedentary women with early stage breast cancer ... | 19 | Perceived barriers and benefits were factors in decision making about colorectal screening.....  | 31                |
|   |    | UK palliative care professionals identified service infrastructure, patient and carer attitudes and characteristics, and practice culture as influencing place of death of patients with cancer..... | 32                |
|   |    | Glossary .....  | Inside back cover |

Search all issues of Evidence-Based Nursing published since 1998 and over 300 medical journals through Highwire press at www.evidencebasednursing.com. EBN 13845.